Archival history	From the label dated 1953 on 'FALK 3' and other notes found amongst these papers it is clear that O.T. Falk (OTF) had examined his papers before they passed from his custody. The nature of some of the material (particularly the letters to and from J.M. Keynes) suggests that OTF selected items which he considered worthy of preservation from his office files. No attempt has been made to re-order this material and it is listed in the order suggested by Dr. Jones's preliminary listing. 1/10, 2/1, 2/7 and the whole of series 4 were returned to the depositor at her request. Copies were deposited in their place.
Immediate source of acquisition or transfer	The collection came to Balliol College from Mrs. Leyson Falk, daughter-in-law of O.T. Falk in Mar 1991 [correspondence in deposit file].

Scope and content
Appraisal, destruction and scheduling information	This material will be retained permanently

Accruals	None expected
System of arrangement	The letters from J.M. Keynes (JMK) to OTF have been described item-by-item to allow comparison between this collection and the letters of JMK to OTF held by the British Library, Add. MSS. 57923 (purchased on 28 Mar 1973 from 'Fiona Campbell Books and Bindings'). No letters in this collection are duplicates of letters in Add. MSS. 57923. From the index references for JMK's correspondence with OTF held by King's College, Cambridge. It is clear that both men destroyed parts of their correspondence (e.g., OTF did not keep copies of all the original letters that he sent to JMK or all of the letters which he received from JMK). Former series 9 and 10 (Mrs. Leyson Falk's correspondence with the British Library about the Falk papers, 1986, and correspondence between Mrs. Leyson Falk and Dr. John Jones [Dean and College Archivist], 1991) have been removed to the collection's deposit file.

Series 3 1919-1940

Series description: Folder with a paper label glued-on. Written on the label: "I read rapidly through this file to-day and think that, for the time being at any rate, everything in it should be kept. It contains some interesting expressions of opinion by Keynes. O.T.F. 24/5/53."

Enclosed, 20 paper sleeves all labelled with a typewriter, "J.M. Keynes" and given a different year beginning with 1919. Correspondence within these sleeves is arranged chronologically although some sleeves contain correspondence from other years (e.g., 1919).

For letters by JMK the date of the letter is listed in the form in which it appears on the letter. OTF's letters to JMK are mostly copies [presumably contemporary] and do not give his address.

The Life of John Maynard Keynes, R.F. Harrod, London: Macmillan and Co., 1951 provides information on the relationship between JMK and OTF (pg. 220) and explains the meaning of a number of abbreviations used in these letters:

"In the 'twenties he [JMK] was very close to Mr. Falk, and they often acted together in a professional way as occasional consultants to firms...In 1921 a small investment company was formed, consisting of Mr. Falk, Sir Geoffrey Fry, Sir Frank Nixon, Mr. Dudley Ward, Mr. Trouton and Keynes...The old "A" Division of the Treasury had come together again, to pool their wisdom, and, to celebrate the fact, the company was christened "A.D." Somewhat later he and Falk took part in the formation of the Independent Investment Trust, which was on a somewhat larger scale. Then, later again, he participated in the formation of a very select company, called "P.R."...This was a channel contrived by Keynes to enable his close friends to increase their capital." (pg. 299).

* indicates that King's College, Cambridge has a copy made by JMK of this particular item of correspondence.

$ indicates that King's College, Cambridge holds the original letter [and therefore that Balliol has a copy made by OTF].

A file reference (e.g., L/21) from the collection of JMK's papers at King's College is given (in square brackets) for each item marked * or $.
